

Paris, May 17, 2010

Natixis announced the appointment of Christophe Lanne as Chief Operating Officer of Corporate and Investment Banking at Natixis, in charge of Systems, Organization, Operations & Finance

Natixis announced the appointment of Christophe Lanne as Chief Operating Officer of Corporate and Investment Banking at Natixis, in charge of Systems, Organization, Operations & Finance, of which he will also be a member of the Executive Committee. He will be taking over from Alain Delouis, who has been appointed Chief Human Resources Officer of Natixis.

Before joining Natixis, Christophe Lanne acquired a solid experience within Groupe Crédit Agricole and Credit Suisse.

In 1990, he joined Inspection of Banque Indosuez, subsequently called Crédit Agricole Indosuez, where he held several positions, such as general secretary for capital market activities from 1995 to 1998 in Paris, then Head of Forex/Treasury/Fixed income in London from 1998 to 1999. In 1999, he was appointed Head of Budget and Strategy and then COO for Global Markets. In 2002, he became Chief Executive Officer of Crédit Agricole Indosuez Securities Japan in Tokyo and Head of Global Markets.

In 2005, Christophe Lanne joined Credit Suisse as managing director in France, member of the EMEA Management Forum, and COO for all Credit Suisse activities in France. In this position, he managed the implementation of the integrated bank strategy for France.

Christophe Lanne, age 47, is a graduate of Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris, of the London School of Economics, and holds a DEA [post-graduate diploma] in Economics from IEP Paris and a masters' degree in Public Law (Paris II).

Press contact:
Andrea Pucnik
+ 33 1 58 19 47 41
andrea.pucnik@natixis.com