

SALES ASSOCIATE / CLIENT MANAGEMENT – CONSUMER CREDIT

DUTIES

The sales associate – client management is responsible for amicable collection related to credit facilities by balancing the company's own needs with the imperative of securing client loyalty and providing lasting solutions to client problems.

The main activities include:

- monitoring and managing a client portfolio;
- performing amicable recoveries of outstanding credits by phone;
- negotiating the best solutions for our clients with an eye toward normalizing the client situation.