

TRADER

DUTIES

- The trader performs the following functions:

- Negotiates and executes fund investment, allocation and exposure instructions on credit and credit derivative markets;
- Monitors market trends in order to provide effective advice on which vehicles to favor, the possible timing of transactions, and the choice of counterparties among internal clients;
- Participates in and manages the daily "morning credit" report;
- Actively participates in the cross-functional management committee meetings with credit analysts.