

SALES

DUTIES

- The salesperson is responsible for marketing fixed income, equity, credit and foreign exchange products.
- His/her technical expertise and personal relations skills enable him/her to analyze the needs of French and international clients.
- He/she further develops an existing client base, enhances client loyalty, negotiates prices and develops financial proposals in conjunction with the trading desk.