

STRUCTURER

DUTIES

- The structurer develops and structures innovative and customized products to satisfy client needs.

- Main activities:
  - Develop the products: investment opportunity, fund investment strategy, competitive advantages, fund terms, business plan, governance;
  - Structure funds:
    - Define the investment structures based on the regulatory, tax and legal constraints of investors and the underlying assets;
  - Structure any other instruments needed for the investment structures (leverage, risk transfer instruments) in conjunction with the management teams and support functions, relying on fund documentation, management companies, partnerships, and the securing of required external authorizations, etc.;
  - Ensure a competitive market watch;
  - Play a support role for the placement teams (production of marketing materials, technical support).