

Paris, September 18, 2013

Christopher Lovgren appointed Global Head of Loan Syndication at Natixis

Christopher Lovgren has been appointed Global Head of Loan Syndication, reporting to Alain Gallois, Global Head of the Debt Platform and Fixed-Income and Treasury Sales, and locally to Olivier Allard, Head of Capital Markets at Natixis in London.

Christopher Lovgren began his career in 1995 with Société Générale CIB (SG CIB) in Paris as Deputy Relationship Manager before becoming Associate, Loan Syndications, for the EMEA region. In 2000, he was appointed Director, Loan Syndications, at UBS Warburg in London, and in 2004 he became Director, Leveraged Loan Distribution at SG CIB, London. In 2005, Christopher joined ING Commercial Banking, London, as Director, European Leveraged Loan Distribution before taking the position of Director, European Leveraged Loan Capital Markets. In 2007, he was promoted Managing Director, European Leveraged Loan Capital Markets, and again in 2009, Managing Director, Head of Structured Loans Capital Markets.

Since 2010, he has held the position of Managing Director, Head of Structured Loans Capital Markets & Head of Syndications in Amsterdam, Netherlands.

Christopher Lovgren holds a degree from University of Oregon and an MBA from the Smeal College of Business Administration, Pennsylvania State University. His education included one year at Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Lyon, and one year at the EM Lyon Business School.

Press contact:

Andrea Pucnik
andrea.pucnik@natixis.com
+33 1 58 32 01 03

 Follow us on Twitter! @Natixis_com