Mirova announce the appointment of Ms Léa Dunand-Chatellet as Head of Equities

Ms Léa Dunand-Chatellet is appointed Head of Equities of Mirova. Reporting to Jens Peers, Chief Investment Officer for Equity, Fixed-Income & Impact Investing, she will be responsible for the team of 10 equity portfolio managers.

Previously Partner-Portfolio Manager and Head of ESG research at Sycomore Asset Management (2010-2015), Léa Dunand-Chatellet started her career at Oddo Securities in the extra-financial department research in 2006. Within the asset management industry, she developed a pioneer model of extra-financial ratings and processed the integration of sustainable issues in the portfolios. This approach has seen its practical application through a range of funds dedicated to Responsible Investments combining financial and extra-financial performances.

Lea Dunand-Chatellet is member of different committees and teach every year specific courses dedicated to Responsible Investment in leading Business Schools. Close to academic research, she co-wrote the last reference publication from Ellipse in 2014: "ISR and Finance Responsible".

Léa Dunand-Chatellet is graduate from the French Ecole Normale Supérieure (ENS) and is Agrégée in Economy and Management.
