Ivanhoé Cambridge and Natixis reach an equity interest agreement for the DUO project in Paris

Paris, France, July 25th, 2017 – Ivanhoé Cambridge, designer, investor and manager of the DUO project, and Natixis announce the signing of an equity interest agreement for Natixis Assurances to take an approximately 50% ownership in the project. Ivanhoé Cambridge continues to provide operations management of the project on behalf of the partners.

Bill Tresham, President of Ivanhoé Cambridge, says: “This agreement finalizes a major new step in our partnership with Natixis. DUO, which is fully leased, exemplifies the development know-how that is a source of such pride for our teams.”

Jean-François Lequoy, Chief Executive Officer for Insurance at Natixis, notes: “Natixis is very proud to become a primary financial partner of DUO, in which we will be not only the tenant but also an investor. This agreement strengthens our partnership with Ivanhoé Cambridge. It also underscores our commitment to be part of an outstanding project that will bring together many teams in a single location, in innovative and connected workspaces that are conducive to teamwork and adapted to the profound transformations that our professions are currently undergoing.”

Ivanhoé Cambridge was advised in this operation by Allen & Overy and Lacourte Raquin Tatar; Natixis was advised by AEW and De Pardieu Brocas Maffei.

About DUO

Located at the edge of the vast Paris Rive Gauche project in the 13th arrondissement, the DUO towers (180 metres and 39 storeys for DUO 1 and 122 metres and 29 storeys for DUO 2), designed by Jean Nouvel, will add to the district’s vitality by providing not only close to 90,000 m² of office space but also a hotel and a “skybar” offering spectacular views of Paris. These two towers will offer innovative, environmentally friendly workspaces as well as spaces open to the public that will encourage encounters and exchanges, including an auditorium, shops, a garden and greenery-filled terraces. Registered under the WELL Building Standard label, DUO demonstrates the willingness to meet the toughest criteria in terms of the comfort, health and well-being of future users. It will achieve outstanding energy performance with LEED® Platinum, HQE® and Effinergie+ certification. In addition, Wired Certification will confirm the project’s connectivity potential and will help establish DUO’s positioning as a pioneer building suited to new ways of working.
