Véronique Sani is appointed Chief Operating Officer of Natixis

Véronique Sani is appointed Chief Operating Officer of Natixis, member of the Senior Management Committee. She will succeed Norbert Cron, effective September 18.

"With over 25 years of expertise, in Paris, the United States and India, Véronique has successfully led ambitious transformation and operational excellence projects. Under her leadership, the Operations and Information Systems Department will remain at the heart of Natixis' innovation and transformation for its clients and for its employees" said François Riahi, Chief Executive Officer of Natixis.

Natixis Senior Management Committee wants to thank Norbert Cron for his commitment and contribution to Natixis' transformation and growth.

Véronique Sani, a recognized expert in transformation projects and operational excellence in the field of information systems, has 25 years of experience in the banking sector, mainly at Société Générale. She began her career in Paris in 1994 at Banque Indosuez's General Inspection before being appointed Corporate clients relationship manager. In 2002, she joined Société Générale as Head of Equity Derivatives Middle Offices, before becoming Global Head of OTC Derivatives Operations for Société Générale CIB. In 2012, she was appointed Managing Director Americas Operations at Société Générale CIB in New York, before becoming Chief Executive Officer of Société Générale Global Solution Centre in India in June 2015.
